

Family Offices in Singapore – setting them up and operating them successfully

3.00pm

Family Offices in Singapore - setting them up and operating them successfully

- Why is Singapore becoming the go-to location for single- and multi-family offices and for UHNW and HNW clients in Asia and from further afield?
- What developments are actually taking place and what is the progress so far?
- How are the HNW and UHNW client requirements changing, and why?
- What are the key regulatory and compliance developments and challenges?
- How deep and developed is the wealth and asset management community in Singapore today?
- How do the private clients identify the right firms and the right experts for professional advice?
- What are the obvious mistakes people make and how can those be avoided?
