Finding value in China – investment strategies for the year ahead

- As we move into 2H 2020 – what’s your view on investment opportunities in China?
- How does China compare to other Asian and Global markets?
- Any concerns or challenges on the horizon?
- What is the best strategy to adopt to access the market? Direct, Funds, ETFs?
- How do you interpret higher nominal yields in RMB vs USD bond markets?
- The A-H premium - what does it mean for offshore wealth managers?
- What sectors offer relative value within the A and H share markets?
- What are the data quality issues when looking for “value” in China?
